24 HOUR REPORT FORM

 Name of Candidate or Group:

INSTRUCTIONS: To be timely filed, your 24 Hour Report must be received by APOC within 24 hours of when your campaign receives a triggering contribution. The 24 Hour Reporting requirement is triggered when a candidate or group receives MORE than $250 in money or non-monetary goods or services from one source during the nine days before the election.

To file the report, you must either:

- 1) Hand-deliver the report to the Anchorage or Juneau APOC office,
- 2) Fax it to (907) 276-7018, or,
- 3) Phone in the information, after 5 p.m., to (907) 276-4176 and leave a voice mail. Please mail the original report if you choose this option.

REMEMBER, the report must be received within 24 hours. A postmark within 24 hours is not sufficient. Do not forget to report the information again on the next disclosure report you file.
