ORDER

This court was assigned pursuant to A.S. 22.20.020(c) to review the denial by Judge Rindner of the recusal motion filed by Dr. Obermeyer.

Judge Rindner's detailed order meets and disposes of each and every issue raised by Dr. Obermeyer in her motion. His responses are logical and consistent with established legal principals. Furthermore, his response is dispassionate and direct, without personalizing the dispute.

The denial of the recusal motion is APPROVED.

DATED this 16 day of May, 2001, at Anchorage, Alaska.

John Reese

Re: Non-Jurisdictional Accusation-Judges Hensley and Rindner

Dear Dr. Obermeyer:

Staff thoroughly reviewed your complaint regarding decisions made by Superior Court Judges Dan Hensley and Mark Rindner in your case, particularly. As we stated in our earlier correspondence, the Commission has no authority to review judges' decisions in court cases. Your case does not raise any ethical issues for the Commission to consider.

The Commission appreciates your taking the time to meet with us and also considered your testimony, but dismissed your complaint as being outside the scope of the Commission's authority at the May 25th meeting in Anchorage.

Sincerely,
